2. Interpretation

In these Conditions unless the context otherwise requires:

2.1 any reference to gender shall include all other genders, and the singular shall include the plural, and vice versa.

2.2 the expression ‘person’ shall mean any individual, firm, company, incorporated association, partnership or joint venture.

2.3 any reference to a statute or a statutory provision shall be construed as a reference to the same from time to time as amended, consolidated, modified, extended, re-enacted or replaced.

3. Conditions Applicable

3.1 The Conditions shall apply to the provision of the Services by the Contractor to the exclusion of all other terms or conditions, including any terms and conditions which the Contractor may purport to apply under any purchase order, confirmation of order or similar document.

3.2 Provision of the Services by the Contractor shall be deemed to constitute the Contractor's acceptance of these Conditions.

3.3 Any variation of the Conditions (including any supplementary or special terms and conditions agreed between the Parties) shall have no effect unless named as an amendment to this agreement and agreed in writing between the Parties.

4. General

4.1 The Company engages the Contractor to be a non-exclusive provider of the Services for the Term of the Contract subject to and in accordance with these Conditions.

4.2 The Company shall not be under any obligation to issue any Purchase Order or Request for Services to the Contractor and reserves the right to procure the provision of services of the same or a similar type to the Services from any other contractor at its sole discretion.

4.3 The Contractor shall be deemed to satisfied itself as to its liability (if any) which may accrue under TUPE, and to have included within the Price the cost of such liability (if any).

4.4 The Contractor undertakes to the Company that it shall comply with its obligations under TUPE in relation to the staff of the Previous Supplier, and shall use all reasonable endeavours to procure a smooth transfer of such staff where appropriate.

4.5 The Contractor shall be responsible for employing and paying the salaries and wages of and any other expenses (including, without limitation, all employment related taxes) of the Staff, and shall also be responsible for terminating the employment of the Staff.

4.6 The Contractor shall indemnify the Company in relation to all costs, claims, expenses, demands, actions, proceedings and orders whatsoever (including but not limited to legal and professional fees and expenses) arising out of a breach of the employment conditions of, or termination of employment of, any member of Staff or any other act or omission in relation to the Staff which occurred on or prior to the Subsequent Transfer Date.

4.7 The Parties agree that at the date of termination or expiry of the Contract or part thereof TUPE may apply and that to the extent that TUPE applies there shall be a "relevant transfer", (as defined in TUPE) of the relevant employees or part of them to the Company or the new contractor selected to provide services to the Company similar to the Services.

4.8 During the 12 (twelve) months immediately preceding the end of the Term or from notice of earlier termination of the Contract for whatever reason the Contractor shall:

4.8.1 provide Retendering Information at no cost to the Company within a maximum of 10 (ten) Business Days of a request;

4.8.2 notify the Company in writing of any material changes to the Retendering Information promptly as and when such changes arise;

4.8.3 ensure that neither the Contractor nor any Subcontractors without the Company's prior written consent:

4.8.3.1 make any material increase or decrease in the numbers of persons engaged or employed by them in providing the Services;

4.8.3.2 increase the remuneration or otherwise change the terms of employment or engagement of the persons engaged or employed by them in providing the Services; or

4.8.3.3 transfer any of the persons engaged or employed by them in providing the Services to another part of their business or move other employees from elsewhere in their business who have not previously been employed or engaged in providing the Services.

4.9 The Contractor agrees to indemnify the Company and, at the Company's request, any new contractor selected to provide services to the Company similar to the Services, against all liability from:

4.9.1 the Contractor or a Subcontractor failing to provide the Company with any Retendering Information promptly; or 4.9.2 any material inaccuracy in or omission from the Retendering Information.

5. Warranty, Specification and Contractor's Obligations

5.1 The Contractor warrants to the Company that the Services:

5.1.1 shall be provided with the high degree of professional skill, sound practices and good judgement normally exercised by recognised professional firms or by highly skilled and experienced contractors providing services of a similar nature to the Services;

5.1.2 shall be provided in accordance with the Specification;

5.1.3 shall be provided in accordance with all applicable laws.

5.2 The Contractor shall comply with the rules, regulations and reasonable directions of the Company whilst at the Site.

5.3 The Contractor shall act diligently and in good faith in its dealings with the Company and use its best endeavours to promote the interests of the Company and maintain the Company's goodwill.

5.4 The Contractor shall maintain at its own expense all licences, permissions and consents necessary to perform its obligations under the Contract.

5.5 The Contractor warrants it will comply, and warrants its employees and sub-contractors shall comply, with the Company's Safeguarding Vulnerable Adults Policy and Procedure, found in Annex 4 of the Form of Agreement.

5.6 The provisions of this Condition 5 shall survive the termination of the Contract, however arising.

6. Inspection and Rejection

6.1 The Company shall have the right to inspect the Services and perform tests as it considers reasonable to ascertain the conformance of the Services with the Specification.

6.2 The Company shall be entitled to reject any Services provided which are not in accordance with the Specification, and shall not be deemed to have accepted any Services until the Company has had reasonable time to inspect them following provision or, if later, within a reasonable time after any latent defect in the Services has become apparent.

6.3 If the Company rejects Services in accordance with Condition 6.2 then the Contractor shall, at the Company's sole option and at the Contractor's sole cost, and as soon as reasonably practicable, but in any event within twenty (20) Business Days of the Company's notice in writing:

6.3.1 re-provide the rejected Services; or

6.3.2 pay to or credit the Company with a refund of the Price paid in respect of the rejected Services; or 6.3.3 provide a combination of the remedies set out in Conditions 6.3.1 to 6.3.3.

6.4 The making of payment by the Company to the Contractor shall not prejudice the Company's right of rejection under Condition 6.2.

6.5 The Company may at any time at its absolute discretion refuse to accept or continue to accept the presence on its premises of any particular person engaged or employed by the Contractor or by a Subcontractor in the provision of the Services.

7. Contract Administrator

7.1 The Company shall nominate the Contract Administrator and may at its sole discretion change any nomination from time to time by notifying the Contractor.

8. Price

8.1 The Price payable for the provision of the Services shall be as stated in Pricing Document, and/or the Purchase Order or Request for Services.

8.2 The Price shall include for all the Contractor's obligations under the Contract, whether expressly stated or reasonably implied.

8.3 No increase in the Price will be made without the prior consent of the Company in writing.

9. Payment

9.1 The Contractor's official invoice should be sent promptly to the Company after the provision of the Services to the address indicated in the Purchase Order or Request for Services, unless otherwise instructed and must show:

9.1.1 the Company's Purchase Order number (if applicable);

9.1.2 The Contractor's invoice number;

9.1.3 a full description of the Services provided;

9.1.4 the full details of the Price;

- 9.1.5 current VAT requirements;
- 9.1.6 the Request for Services originator (if applicable).

Failure to include such information with the invoice will entitle the Company to delay payment until such information is provided.

- 9.2 The Company shall make payment (subject to deduction of any Disputed Amounts (as defined in Condition 9.5) against each invoice within thirty (30) days after the receipt by the Company of the invoice and all information required under Condition 9.1 (the "Due Date for Payment"). If the Contractor fails to provide any of the information or documents that it should have provided in complying with its obligations under Condition 9.1 then the Company may reject the invoice.
- 9.3 Payment by the Company shall be without prejudice to any claims or rights which the Company may have against the Contractor and shall not constitute any admission by the Company as to performance by the Contractor of its obligations under the Contract.
- 9.4 The Company shall have the right to amend the procedure for submission of invoices by the Contractor if it deems necessary. This may involve, but shall not be limited to, varying the batching, frequency/timescale, computerised invoicing, documentation requirements, etc. The Contract Administrator shall give the Contractor written notification of any such amendment and the Contractor shall comply within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the notification.
- 9.5 If the Company disputes in good faith its obligations to pay part or all of an invoice submitted by the Contractor under this Contract (the "Disputed Amount"), then the following provisions shall apply:
 - 9.5.1 The Company shall pay the undisputed amount to the Contractor in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 9;
 - 9.5.2 The Company shall notify the Contractor before the payment becomes due of the Disputed Amount and the reasons why it considers it is not obliged to pay the Disputed Amount;
 - 9.5.3 The Company's failure to pay the Disputed Amount, pending resolution of the dispute, will not be a breach of this Contract;
 - 9.5.4 Where the Company has notified the Contractor under Condition 9.5.2 that there is a Disputed Amount, the Contractor must notify the Company within five (5) Business Days following receipt of that notification if it does not agree with the Company's position (as notified to it under Condition 9.5.2) and the reasons why it does not agree; failing which the Contractor will be deemed to agree that the Disputed Amount is not payable;
 - 9.5.5 The Parties shall refer to the dispute resolution procedure under Condition 14 the issue of whether or how much of the Disputed Amount is payable to the Contractor;
 - 9.5.6 Upon the payment of the Disputed Amount which is payable by the Company (if any) being determined through the dispute resolution procedure under Condition 14, the Company must pay that amount to the Contractor, within fifteen (15) Business Days of receipt of a corrected invoice from the

Contractor for the Disputed Amount (or relevant part of it) as so determined;
and

9.5.7 Where the Contractor agrees, or it is determined, that an invoice contains an error, and a subsequent invoice contains an equivalent error, the Company will be under no obligation to pay any part of the subsequent invoice until the error has been rectified and a correct invoice has been submitted and, for the avoidance of doubt, the time allowed for payment of the correct invoice under this clause will run from the date on which it is re-presented correctly.

9.6 The Price (as set out in the Pricing Document) will be subject to a review on the Review Date and thereafter on each anniversary of the Review Date. Any adjustment in the Price shall be by agreement between the Company and the Contractor and shall not exceed the percentage adjustment of the CPI over the previous 12 months.

9.7 Value Added Tax, where applicable, shall be shown separately on all invoices at the prevailing rate.

9.8 The Company shall be entitled to off-set against any invoice, any monies due to the Contractor under the Purchase Order or Request for Services or under any other contractual arrangement.

10. Indemnity

10.1 The Contractor will indemnify the Company in full against the following:

10.1.1 all loss, liability, revenue, goodwill, damages, costs, expenses (including legal expenses), anticipated savings or injury whatsoever and whenever arising caused to the Company, or for which the Company may be liable to third parties due to defective workmanship or unsound quality of the Services provided.

10.1.2 all claims in respect of death or injury, howsoever caused, to any of the employees, or those of the agent or sub-contractors, of the Contractor, while in or about the Company's premises.

10.1.3 any indirect or consequential loss or damage sustained by the Company for which the Company may be liable, as a result of the failure of the Contractor to provide the Services as stated in the Specification.

10.2 The provisions of this Condition 10 shall survive the termination of the Contract, however arising.

11. Insurance

11.1 The Contractor shall take out and maintain in full force and effect with a reputable insurance company the minimum insurance requirements as specified in the Contract Particulars.

11.2 The Contractor shall when required by the Company provide evidence of the insurance required under Condition 11.1. In the event that the Contractor at any time fails to maintain the insurance required under Condition 11.1, the Company may take out such insurance and the Contractor shall pay to the Company the cost and expenses so incurred by the Company.

12. Compliance with Applicable Laws

12.1 In providing the Services the Contractor shall at all times comply with all applicable laws including, but not limited to:

- 12.1.1 the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974;
- 12.1.2 the Environmental Protection Act 1990;
- 12.1.3 the GDPR regulations and Data Protection Act 2018;
- 12.1.4 the Freedom of Information Act 2000;
- 12.1.5 the Equality Act 2010;
- 12.1.6 the Bribery Act 2010;
- 12.1.7 the Waste Electronic and Electrical Equipment Regulations 2006.

and any subsequent re-enactments or amendments.

13. Term and Termination

13.1 Subject to earlier termination in accordance with its terms, the Contract shall commence on the Commencement Date and shall continue for the duration of the Term.

13.2 No later than one (1) month prior to the Initial Expiry Date the Company may, in its absolute discretion, give written notice to the Contractor that it wishes the Contract to continue until the Extended Expiry Date.

13.3 If the Company gives notice in accordance with clause 13.2 the Contract shall continue until the Extended Expiry Date, subject to the provisions for earlier termination contained in the Contract.

13.4 The Company shall be entitled to terminate the Contract without liability to the Contractor by giving notice to the Contractor at any time if:

- 13.4.1 the Contractor makes any voluntary arrangement with its creditors (within the meaning of the Insolvency Act 1986) or (being an individual, or firm) becomes bankrupt or (being a company) becomes subject to an administration order or goes into liquidation (otherwise than for the purpose of amalgamation or reconstruction);
- 13.4.2 the Contractor ceases, or threatens to cease to carry on business;
- 13.4.3 the Contractor dies or by reason of any illness becomes unable to comply with its obligations under the Contract;
- 13.4.4 the Contractor commits an offence under the Bribery Act 2010;
- 13.4.5 the Contractor fails to comply with any or all applicable laws;
- 13.4.6 the Contractor commits any criminal offence whilst providing the Services;
- 13.4.7 the Contract has been subject to a substantial modification which would have required a new procurement procedure in accordance with Regulation 72(9) of the Public Contracts Regulations 2015;
- 13.4.8 the Supplier has, at the time of Contract award, been in one of the situations referred to in Regulation 57(1) of the Public Contracts Regulations 2015, and should therefore have been excluded from the procurement procedure;
- 13.4.9 the Contract is subject to a declaration of ineffectiveness by the Court.

- 13.5 Where the Company terminates the Contract in accordance with Condition 13.4, the Company shall be entitled to recover from the Contractor all additional cost, loss or expense reasonably incurred by the Company in procuring the Services (or any part of them) from an alternative Contractor.
- 13.6 The Company shall have the right to terminate the Contract at any time by providing the Contractor with three (3) months' written notice of the Company's intention to terminate.
- 13.7 Either Party shall have the right to terminate the Contract immediately by notice to the other Party if the other Party is in material breach of the Contract and either the other Party fails to remedy such breach within ten (10) Business Days of notification of the breach, or such breach is incapable of remedy.
- 13.8 Upon the termination of the Contract, the Contractor shall (if required by the other Company) promptly return to the Company all Confidential Information, data, materials and other property of the Company.
- 13.9 Termination of the Contract shall not prejudice any rights, powers or remedies of either Party which had arisen on or before the date of termination of the Contract.

14. Dispute Resolution

- 14.1 If any dispute arises out of or in respect of the Contract, a representative of each Party shall, within thirty (30) days of a written request from one Party to the other, meet in a good faith effort to resolve the dispute.
- 14.2 Failing resolution of such dispute by such dispute within a period of ten (10) Business Days of the reference to them, the dispute shall immediately be referred in writing by either Party to the respective directors of each of the Parties who shall seek to reach agreement upon such dispute within one (1) calendar month of the reference to them. The dispute may, by agreement between the Parties, be referred to mediation. A neutral person (a mediator) shall be chosen by agreement between the Parties or within fourteen (14) days of notice apply to the Centre for Dispute Resolution ("CEDR") to appoint a mediator.

15. Notices

- 15.1 Any notice to be served on a Party by the other Party shall be in writing and shall be addressed to the other Party.

16. Variations

- 16.1 The Company reserves the right to from time to time in writing to the Contractor, to alter, amend, omit, add to or otherwise vary the provision of Services. Any alteration to the Price or the completion date arising from such variation shall be agreed in writing by both Parties.

17. Assignment and Sub Contracting

- 17.1 The Contractor shall not assign or sub-contract the Contract or any part of it without the prior consent of the Company in writing. Such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

17.2 Subject to the provisions of Condition 17.1, the Contractor shall ensure that each of its sub-contractors is bound to observe to it the same or materially similar contractual obligations to those which bind it in this Contract.

17.3 The Company may on giving reasonable notice in writing to the Contractor, transfer or assign all or any rights and/or obligations under the Contract.

18. Waiver

18.1 No waiver shall be effective unless it is communicated to the other Party in writing and the failure of either Party to exercise any right or remedy shall not constitute a waiver.

19. Force Majeure

19.1 Neither Party to the Contract shall be deemed to be in breach of the Contract, or otherwise liable to the other Party in any manner whatsoever, for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Contract due to Force Majeure.

20. Confidentiality

20.1 The Receiving Party shall at all times keep secret and confidential the Confidential Information and shall not disclose the same to any third Party without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party.

20.2 The Receiving Party shall use at least the same degree of care to avoid unauthorised dissemination or publication of Confidential Information disclosed to it by the Disclosing Party under the Contract as it employs with respect to its own information which it does not desire to have disseminated or published.

20.3 The Receiving Party shall only use the Confidential Information internally for the Permitted Purpose and shall disclose it only to its employees who have a need to know the same for the Permitted Purpose. Any employee to whom Confidential Information is disclosed shall be informed of these Confidentiality provisions contained in this Condition 20 and the confidential nature of the Confidential Information.

20.4 The Receiving Party shall not make copies of or reproduce in any media the Confidential Information save that a number of copies or reproductions may be made for the Permitted Purpose and all such copies and reproductions shall be regarded as Confidential Information.

20.5 The provisions of Conditions 20.1 to 20.4 above shall not apply with respect to any information received by the Receiving Party from the Disclosing Party which:

20.5.1 the Receiving Party can demonstrate by evidence in writing was already in the Receiving Party's possession prior to the date hereof and was not obtained (whether directly or indirectly) from the Disclosing Party; or

20.5.2 is subsequently developed independently by the Receiving Party without any reference to or use of the Confidential Information; or

20.5.3 is in the public domain or subsequently enters into the public domain otherwise than by breach of the Contract by the Receiving Party or any other obligation of confidentiality owed by the Receiving Party to the Disclosing Party; or

- 20.5.4 is subsequently disclosed to the Receiving Party by a third Party lawfully in possession of the same who is not under a duty of confidentiality to the Disclosing Party; or
- 20.5.5 is approved in writing by the Disclosing Party for use or disclosure.
- 20.6 The provision of Confidential Information by the Disclosing Party does not create any obligation to the Receiving Party as to the accuracy of such Confidential Information.
- 20.7 The Contractor shall not even after the expiry or terminations of the Contract disclose such Confidential Information except with the written consent of the Company.
- 20.8 The provisions of this Condition 20 shall survive the termination of the Contract, however arising.

21. Conflict of Interest

- 21.1 In carrying out its obligations under the Contract the Contractor shall ensure that no conflict of interest arises which will or will be likely to prejudice its independence and objectivity or otherwise detrimentally affect the Contractor's ability to perform or cause embarrassment or reputational harm to the Company.
- 21.2 Upon becoming aware of any such conflict of interest the Contractor shall immediately notify the Company in writing, giving particulars and shall provide any further information as may reasonably be required.
- 21.3 Where there is reasonable opinion that such conflict presents harm the Company may require the Contractor to take reasonable steps to avoid or remove conflict. The Company may terminate the Contract by notice in writing if there is a failure to comply.

22. Intellectual Property

- 22.1 All Background Intellectual Property is and shall remain the exclusive property of the Party owning it.
- 22.2 The Company and the Contractor shall be responsible for identifying and agreeing in writing on behalf of the Parties any Background Intellectual Property used, or to be used, in the course of the Contract and the owner of the same, prior to or as soon as reasonably practicable following its disclosure in the course of the Contract.
- 22.3 Each Party acknowledges that one Party's Background Intellectual Property may be required to be accessed by the other Party in order to undertake the Contract.
- 22.4 Each Party hereby grants to the other an irrevocable, non-exclusive, perpetual and royalty-free licence to use its Background Intellectual Property during the term of the Contract for the purpose of carrying out the Contract.
- 22.5 All Foreground Intellectual Property that arises or is obtained or developed in the course of or in connection with the Contract shall vest in the Company.

22.6 The provisions of this Condition 22 shall survive the termination of the Contract, however arising.

23. Equality and Diversity

23.1 The Contractor shall adopt a policy to comply with the Company's statutory obligations under the relevant equality legislation.

23.2 The Contractor shall not discriminate directly or indirectly against any person in decisions to recruit, train, promote, discipline or dismiss employees on the grounds of the following:

23.2.1 age;

23.2.2 disability;

23.2.3 gender reassignment;

23.2.4 marriage and civil partnership;

23.2.5 pregnancy and maternity;

23.2.6 race;

23.2.7 religion and belief;

23.2.8 sex;

23.2.9 sexual orientation.

23.3 The Contractor shall positively assert equality and harmony and promptly prepare and give to the Company all information about the Contractor's employees to enable the Company to comply with its obligations under relevant equality legislation to the extent they apply to the Contract.

23.4 The Contractor shall observe all the relevant guidance and codes of practice issued by the Equality and Human Rights Commission and its legacy commissions, as the case may be.

23.5 The Contractor shall observe all their public duties as described under the Equality Act 2010, and all subsequent re-enactments and amendments.

23.6 The Contractor shall provide to the Company, at the commencement of the Contract, a copy of all its equality schemes and documents. The Contractor shall also provide to the Company its equality scheme monitoring results on an annual basis.

23.7 The Contractor will provide evidence of, prior to the commencement of the Contract and thereafter on an annual basis throughout the Contract, details of training proposed and undertaken for all Contractor employees in respect of equality and diversity.

23.8 The Contractor shall impose on any sub-contractor appointed in accordance with Condition 17 obligations substantially similar to those imposed on the Contractor by this Condition 23.

24. Legal Relationship

24.1 Nothing in the Contract shall be construed so as to create a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

24.2 Neither of the Parties shall describe itself as the agent of the other, nor shall it make or represent that it has authority to make any commitments on the other Party's behalf.

25. Rights of Third Parties

25.1 No term of the Contract is enforceable under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 by a person who is not a Party to the Contract.

26. Governing Law

26.1 The Contract shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and the courts of England will have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any disputes which may arise out of or in connection with the Contract.
