Age-friendly employment	Support to access work has not always been designed with people in their 50s, 60s and beyond in mind. With people being more likely to face additional challenges in finding and sustaining work as they age, Greater Manchester Combined Authority in partnership with Centre for Ageing Better have taken steps to understand what residents need and to look at how our approach to employment support services and wider activity can support this.		Hannah Scriven – Principal, Wider Employment Landscape, GMCA Elaine Smith – Programme Manager, Centre for Ageing Better/GMCA Elayne Redford – Work and Skills Specialist, Manchester City Council The Growth Company – Speaker TBC.	TBC
Breakout session	With a focus on those who are not in paid employment and may have barriers to work, we are looking at new ways to design and deliver employment related activity. We will be sharing insights from our projects to date, looking at how we can turn ideas into embedded policy and practice at a local level.
Walking audits to create age-friendly environments	Join us for a walking audit of Manchester City Centre, exploring how the physical environment shapes ageing in place. This interactive session will draw on insights from the Greater Manchester Ageing in Place Pathfinder, particularly the resident-led walking audits in Gorton, to highlight the importance of community-driven approaches in understanding and improving neighbourhoods for older residents. By taking part, you will gain first-hand experience of how walking audits can inform inclusive urban design, learn from examples of co-creation with residents, and discuss practical applications with fellow practitioners, including community organisations, social housing providers, and local government. Spaces are limited to 12 participants.		Chair: Lauren Foster – Project Manager, Ageing in Place Pathfinder, GM Ageing Hub, GMCA Louise Robbins – Strategic Lead, Walking & Active Environments (GM Moving) Helen Hawes , Community Engagement Assistant, Ageing in Place, Southway Housing	TBC

11:20 – 12:20 	Creating age-friendly businesses	Creating more age-friendly businesses - whether that's shops, cafes, leisure centres or many more - is a priority for many Age-friendly Communities. But sometimes "making the case" to those local businesses can be a challenge. In this session we will hear directly from local business representatives about how they are making their businesses more age-friendly, and the approaches you can take to win the hearts and minds of businesses in your area	Kye Whitehouse – Guest Experience Manager, Trinity Shopping Centre, Leeds Rachel Woodward Carrick - College Director, Bournemouth University International College and Board member of Bournemouth Town Centre BID Leila Bendrimia - Community Sport and Health Manager for Manchester, Greenwich Leisure Limited	TBC
	Dying well in Age-friendly Communities	An Age-friendly Community is one that works for people across the lifecourse, and supporting end of life and dying well is no exception. In this session we will hear from representatives from hospices, compassionate communities and public health to consider how the community can support dying well for local residents, starting with understanding what your community wants and needs.	Sharon Williams – Project Manager, Compassionate Communities Northern Ireland Gerry O'Kello – Commissioner – Adults, Health and Communities, London Borough of Newham Dr Mary Hodgson – Director of Inclusion & Social Innovation, St Christopher's Hospice	TBC
	Building Age-friendly and Inclusive Rural Communities	Older people living in rural areas can face challenges around staying connected (digital and transport), accessing health and care, or the right housing. Climate/weather factors can also have an outsize impact. At the same time rural areas can be great places to grow older. Older people form the backbone of many communities and report greater health and wellbeing than urban areas, as well as access to the great outdoors. This panel shares learning from rural communities across Wales, Ireland and the Nordic region on how to continue to thrive at any age despite, and sometimes because, of the challenges.	Karen Fennessey – Regional Programme Manager, Healthy Age Friendly Homes Programme, Age Friendly Ireland Louise Scheel Thomasen – Senior Adviser, Nordic Welfare Centre Dave McKinney – Ageing Well Lead, Office of Welsh Older People's Commissioner	TBC
	Getting started with working with older residents	Facilitated by Good Practice Mentors, this breakout session is a 101 for early stage network members or age-friendly leads on how to work well with older people in your age-friendly community- from engaging a range of residents to setting up your co-production approach for success.	Jennie Shrewsbury – Programme Lead, Good Practice Mentor Programme Jo Stapleton – Good Practice Mentor, Age UK Camden	TBC
12:20 – 13:00 Lunch

13:00 – 14:00 ●	Networking session	An opportunity for communities to come together around topics of interest and get to know their fellow network members. Network members will have the opportunity to identify areas they are “seeking” to make connections around and practices and experiences they can “share” other network members
14:00 – 14:20 Break
14:20 – 15:20 ●	Understanding the impact of your age-friendly community	Demonstrating the impact of your age-friendly community is essential, to both understand what is working well and to help make the case for continued investment and support. This session will utilise the framework developed in the UK Network of Age-friendly Communities Impact Report as a model for understanding your impact on your local system and on older residents.	Emma Butcher – Senior Consultant, Urban Foresight	TBC
	Mapping your community’s age-friendliness	This session is designed for earlier stage communities or those looking to refresh their action plan, to get started with mapping the policies, services and practices already in place in your area which are age-friendly. The session will help you consider your existing strengths and what might be next and will utilise the newly published Mapping Tool as part of the Age-friendly Communities Handbook	Bianca Rossetti – Strategic Partnership Manager – Greater Manchester, Centre for Ageing Better	TBC
	Becoming an Age-friendly leader	This session will explore the role of the Age-friendly coordinator and how to become a local leader for age-friendliness. The session will bring together learning from the UK and internationally and will use the newly published Age-friendly leadership handbook	Paul McGarry – Assistant Director of Public Service Reform, GMCA; Head, GM Ageing Hub (GMCA) Anne Berit Rafoss – Project Manager, Age-friendly Norway Tom van Benthem – Strategic Policy Advisor, Age-friendly Amsterdam (Invited)	TBC
	Taking your co-production work to the next level	Facilitated by Good Practice Mentors, this session is for more advanced practitioners and Age-friendly Communities to consider how to build on their current engagement work and consider how to further put co-production at the heart of their work, learning from emerging models and practice.	Jennie Shrewsbury – Programme Lead, Good Practice Mentor Programme Jo Stapleton – Good Practice Mentor, Age UK Camden	TBC
15:20- 15:55	Celebrate Ageing, Challenge Ageism	A performance from local older residents bringing a creative representation of Celebrating Ageing and Challenging Ageism, Members of Octagon Theatre, Bolton

		ahead of the this year's Age Without Limits Action Day
